

What should I do if my spouse dies?

Application for benefits (to be filed within 90 days of the date of death)

Life insurance

When an insured person dies, the insurer must be informed of the death in writing or by calling the customer service department. In addition, the application for life insurance benefits must be sent to the insurer, along with all supporting documentation, no later than 90 days after the date of death.

Please contact SSQ Insurance within 90 days after the date of death to extend the insurance protection and conversion rights of the surviving spouse and any dependent children.
